By-Laws

ARTICLE I

Membership

1. The resident membership of this Club shall be limited to one hundred.

2. Persons not residing within twenty-five miles of the City Hall of Philadelphia may be elected as non-resident members. They shall have no interest in any property of the Club, shall not vote, and shall not hold office in the Club. Any non-resident member who shall become resident within the prescribed limit shall thereby cease from membership; but he may, within thirty days from such removal, make written application to the Secretary for election to resident membership. Upon such application being received it shall be transmitted to the Board of Directors at its next regular meeting and a majority of the Board may elect such candidate. If the candidate shall be elected, but there shall then be no vacancy in the resident membership, he shall acquire no rights of membership until such a vacancy shall have occurred, whereupon, upon the payment of the initiation fee and dues of resident membership as of the date of such vacancy, he shall acquire all the rights of resident membership. The Board of Directors may extend the courtesies of the club to any such candidate during the pendency of his application for membership. Resident members moving without the twenty-five-mile limit may be put upon the non-resident list by application to the Board of Directors.

3. The number of non-resident members shall be limited to one hundred.

4. Honorary members may be elected in the same manner as other members. They shall be exempt from the payment of the entrance fee and all dues or assessments, but shall have no vote in the proceedings of the Club, and no interest in its property. They shall be limited to twelve.

5. The qualifications for membership shall be: first, personal acceptability on the part of any man over twenty-one years of age, and, second, the authorship of one or more copyrighted books (excepting school-books), articles, stories, poems, essays, or plays, or the pictorial illustration of any of the same, or the publication or editing of books or magazines of recognized literary merit.

ARTICLE II

Election and Resignation of Members

1. All nominations for membership shall be in writing and must be signed by two resident or non-resident members in good standing. Each nomination, together with a statement of the candidate's residence and qualifications, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Club, who shall at once transmit it to the chairman of the Membership Committee. Immediately upon receiving such nomination the Secretary shall post in the INN and mail to each resident and non-resident member a printed form with the name of the nominee, his proposer and seconder, and his qualifications for membership, with a request that members communicate to the Chairman of the Committee on Membership within ten days, any objections they may have to the election of the proposed member, or any information, favorable or otherwise, they may be disposed to give. All such communications shall be laid before the Membership Committee in the strictest confidence, and when the candidate shall have been elected, rejected or withdrawn, shall be promptly returned to the writer.

2. It shall be the duty of the Membership Committee to make diligent inquiry as to the qualifications and desirability of all candidates proposed for membership, but it shall not take final action upon any nomination within two weeks from its receipt from the Secretary. Within three calendar months from the receipt of each nomination by its chairman, said Committee shall take final action upon the nomination. If a majority of the Committee favor his admission his name shall be reported to the Secretary and at the next regular meeting of the Directors a majority of the Board may elect such candidate to membership.

3. Each member shall, as soon as possible after his election, present to the Club one copy of each of his published books, so far as practicable.

4. Any member may withdraw from the Club by paying his indebtedness to its Treasury and giving written notice of his resignation to the Secretary, provided, said notice shall be received by the Secretary at least thirty days before the end of the calendar year. At the expiration of ten days from the receipt of said resignation by the Secretary, if the same shall not have been withdrawn in the meantime, the sender thereof shall cease from membership without further action upon the part of the Club, and thereupon shall forfeit all interest in the Club property.

ARTICLE III

Directors and Officers

1. A Board of six Directors, a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer shall be elected from the resident membership, by ballot, at the Annual Meeting of the Club, and such Directors and officers shall serve for one year, and until their successors are elected, unless sooner removed by death, resignation, or a majority vote of all the members of the Club, provided, however, that the six elected members of the Board chosen at the Annual Election of 1912, shall so classify themselves by lot, that two of their number shall hold office for one year, two for two years, and two for three years. That thereafter, each Annual Meeting shall elect two Directors for the term of three years, and that no member of the Board (other than the President) shall be eligible for two successive terms. The President shall be ex officio a member, and Chairman of the Board of Directors.

2. A vacancy in any of said offices shall be filled at the next regular meeting of the Club, and the person so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting.

3. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be held by the same person.

4. The President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall perform the duties usually appertaining to their respective offices.

ARTICLE IV

Committees

Two Committees of five members each shall be appointed by the Board of Directors at the first meeting after its election, or as soon thereafter as may be, to serve for one year, or until their successors are appointed, one of which shall be called the House Committee, and shall have charge of the INN; and the other of which shall be called the Membership Committee, and shall investigate and pass upon the eligibility of applicants for membership. Vacancies on either of said committees caused by death, resignation or removal by the majority vote of the whole of the respective committee, which removal is hereby authorized, shall be filled by the Board by election. The President shall be a member of both of said committees and the Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be members of the House Committee.

2. The President may appoint such other committees as he may deem requisite, or as he may be directed by the Board, and shall be ex officio a member of each of such committees.

ARTICLE V

Meetings

1. The Annual Meeting of the Club shall be held at the INN on the 17th day of January (Franklin's birthday) or, that falling on Sunday or a legal holiday, on the following business day. Other regular meetings shall be held at the INN on the second Friday of the months of October, November, December, February, March, April and May. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board of Directors, such meetings shall be called for the hour of 8 o'clock P.M.; provided, however, that any meeting of the Club once regularly convened may, by a majority vote of those present, adjourn to any other time or place, and that the Board of Directors, under special circumstances justifying such change, may direct meetings to be called at other convenient times and places than herein specified.

2. Special meetings may be called at the discretion of the President, and shall be called by him upon the request, in writing, of five members. The Secretary shall duly notify each member of each meeting, and shall, when an election is to be held, or any alteration or amendment to the By-Laws is proposed, state such fact in the notices.

3. The order of business shall be as follows:

- I. Calling to order.
- II. Calling the roll.
- III. Reading the minutes of the previous meeting.
- IV. Reports of Officers.
- V. Reports of Committees.
- VI. Unfinished business.
- VII. New business.
- VIII. Adjournment.

4. Fifteen members, competent to vote, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At meetings of the Board of Directors and Committees, a majority shall be a quorum.

ARTICLE VI

Dues

1. The entrance fee shall be twenty dollars for resident members, and non-payment thereof for thirty days after notice of election shall forfeit election.

2. The annual dues of resident members shall be twenty-five dollars, and the annual dues of non-resident members ten dollars each, payable on the first day of each year, in advance, or within thirty days after notice of election; provided, however, that persons elected after the first day of July shall pay only one-half the annual dues for that year.

ARTICLE VII

Penalties

1. Any member failing to pay his annual dues or other indebtedness to the Club for the space of thirty days after the same shall have been incurred, and after due notice thereof shall have been given, shall be, de facto, suspended, and shall be so notified by the Secretary, and his name posted in the INN; and any member sixty days in arrears shall be notified by the Secretary, and unless he shall pay his arrears in full within one month from such notice, shall, de facto, lose his membership and forfeit his interest in any property of the Club.

2. Any member may be adjudged guilty of contempt of the Club and suspended by a majority vote or dropped from membership by a three-fourths vote of those present at any duly authorized meeting of the Club; provided, such member shall have been given at least two weeks' notice of the contemplated action at said meeting, and shall have been afforded a reasonable opportunity to justify, excuse, or explain his alleged misconduct.

ARTICLE VIII

Suspension and Amendment

1. Any or all of these By-Laws, except this Article, may be suspended by the unanimous consent of those present at any meeting at which not less than three-fourths of the members of the Club entitled to vote are present when such suspension is proposed; but this Article VIII, Sections 1 and 2, shall never be suspended.

2. Any alteration or amendment to the By-Laws must be proposed in writing at a duly authorized meeting of the Club, and such alteration or amendment may be acted upon at the next duly authorized meeting; provided, however, that the notices of such meeting shall have set forth, by Article and Section, which By-Laws are to be altered or amended, and that the proposed amendments shall have been posted in the INN at least ten days prior to said meeting.
